SOCIALISTS ADOPT A RESOLUTION

The rally meeting of the Ogden branch of the Socialist party, held in Ogden Musical hall yesterday afternoon, was largely attended and the prime result of the gathering was the fastening of new life into the movement in this city. A number of new members were added to the ranks of the party in this city.

William M. Woolsey, president as chairman of the meeting, and there were talks by the chairman, A. Van Werden, candidate on the Socialist ticket for state senator at the recent election; Benjamin Jensen, Mr. Alverdy, Mrs. A. Van Werden and other members of the branch.

As a declaration of indignation at the imprisonment of Fred D. Warren, editor of the Appeal to Reason, who was given six months in the federal prison at Leavenworth and a fine of $1,500 for the sending of alleged scurrilous literature through the mails, the following protest was unanimously adopted:

"We, the Socialists of Ogden, in public assembly, do hereby voice our protest against the legal persecution and imprisonment of Fred D. Warren, the fighting editor of the Appeal to Reason, of Girard, Kansas.

"We must consider that such action by the United States courts in inflicting this punishment upon this champion of the working class brands those courts as the judicial and subservient agents of the capitalist class, and that the imprisonment of the Girard editor is a blow at the liberty of the people's press and at the freedom of speech which is assured the people of this country by the Declaration of Independence.

(Signed) "W. M. WOOLSEY, Chairman."

Copies of the protest have been sent to the various Socialist publications in the United States and also to Mr. Warren himself.
